

Grammar and Vocabulary for the TOEIC® Test Practice Test

Listening and Reading Answer Key

Section 1: Listening

Part 1: Photographs

1 C

A young man is standing beside a stand of produce. In this case the produce is fruit. We cannot be certain whether he is (B) buying or (D) selling the produce, nor (A) who owns the fruit stand.

2 B

The cashier is in the middle of ringing up the purchases (= recording and calculating the cost of what the customer is buying). (A) The customer has not taken out money or a credit card for payment. The women are neither (D) taking the produce out of the cart nor (C) putting it into a box.

3 B

The woman is looking at a computer screen. (A) Her hand is on a book, not on the computer. (C) Although there may be a mouse pad on the table, we cannot see one. (D) She is holding a pen, not an eraser.

4 C

The group of children is paying attention to the woman as she shows them the globe. We don't know if she is (A) talking about her travels or (B) pointing to her country. (D) The children are not pointing at anything.

5 A

There is no information in the picture about what the man is doing in the field. He might be (C) managing wind energy or (D) working for a farmer, but we don't know. (B) He is unlikely to be taking a walk in the country because he is wearing a hardhat and overalls.

6 D

The man and woman are in a garage. We don't know if they (B) work in an office or (C) manage a car factory, although this is unlikely because they look like they work in the garage. (A) We don't know if they are married.

7 C

The woman is wearing a face mask, goggles, gloves and a protective suit. (A) She is not using a magnifying glass. She is wearing goggles, not glasses. (B) She may work in a hospital, but she could also be in an industrial laboratory. (D) Her protective clothing is not suitable for winter weather.

8 D

There are people sitting at tables with drinks and a woman appears to be explaining something in a menu. (A) The people seated at the table may or may not be there for a meeting over a meal. (B) The woman who is standing appears to be explaining something in a menu. She is not removing anything from the table. (C) There are no suit jackets in the picture.

9 C

The woman is on a ladder in the aisle of a store. (A) She is not walking or (D) working at a counter. (B) She may be searching for some merchandise, but she could also be arranging the products.

10 C

The man is pushing a wheelbarrow at a construction site. (A) He may or may not be building a house. (B) There are bricks in the picture, but he is not making them. (D) There is a car, but he is not driving it.

Part 2: Question-Response

11 B

The first speaker asks for directions with the key word where, so the answer must be a location. (A) Although turn on sounds similar to turn, it means “activate a switch,” not “change direction.” (C) is an answer to the question when, not where.

12 A

The first speaker asks about intentions of updating software and the second speaker answers when that will happen. (B) Wear sounds the same as the ware in software, but means “be dressed in.” (C) Dates sounds similar to dating but means “particular days.”

13 C

The key question word is where. “Jacob’s Computer Store” is a location. (A) and (B) are both answers to the question when.

14 B

The key question word is when, so a time of day is the correct answer. The response indicates that the break-in (= illegal entry) included a robbery (= theft). (A) Broken is the past of break, but means “damaged.” (C) The phrase record-breaking means “better than previous attempts or scores.”

15 C

The first speaker is seeking to confirm that Mr. MacIntosh is a trustee (a member) of the board (a group of managers). (A) Trustworthy sounds similar to trustee but means “reliable” and (B) bored sounds the same as board but means “uninterested.”

16 A

The key question word is who’s (= who is), so the answer should identify a person. (B) is an answer to whose and (C) gives the information about the flight.

17 A

The question asks for confirmation that a person did overtime (= extra work). (B) is about extra money, not extra work. (C) Overtired sounds similar to overtime, but means “very tired.”

18 C

The question is a formal way to introduce a person. The key words are the woman’s title Ms and surname Daley. (A) Miss sounds similar to Ms, but in this sentence miss means “to be absent from”. The word meeting in this sentence is a noun meaning “an event where people come together,” rather than a form of the verb meet (= be introduced to). (B) Everyday has the same meaning as the word “daily,” which sounds the same as Daley.

19 A

The first speaker makes a statement about moving offices and the second speaker provides more information about the situation. (B) is about offers, not offices, and (C) is about officers (= people in official positions) and not offices (= places of work).

20 B

The first speaker makes a request and the second speaker agrees to it. (A) is an explanation of how to get to the fourth floor. (C) Four (the ordinal number 4) sounds similar to fourth (the cardinal number 4th).

21 B

The verb wait shows that the key question word, how long, is about a length of time. (A) Waiter (= a person who brings food to people in a restaurant) sounds similar to wait (= stay). (C) Three meters answers the question how long when it refers to distance, not to time.

22 A

The first speaker gives information about an employee and the second speaker reacts to that information. (B) Someone who is sick is ill, but the two people are discussing a third person. (C) If Emma called in sick, she must not be at work and so it is unlikely that her colleague would be told to call a doctor for her.

23 C

The key question word is how. (A) is an answer to when. (B) is an answer to where.

24 A

The question is a suggestion and the response is an agreement. (B) Bicycle sounds similar to recycle. (C) is unrelated to the topic of recycling, as it is about the location of paper that is ready to be used.

25 B

The first speaker is asking for confirmation of a past situation and the second speaker disagrees with the statement. (A) The verb is used to means “is accustomed to” and refers to the present. (C) The context of the conversation makes it clear that the share refers to dividing a part of the office and not to stocks in a company.

26 C

The first speaker is asking if the other person has time to do something and the second speaker confirms this and asks for more information. (A) A minute sounds similar to the minutes, which in this response means “a written report of a meeting.” (B) In the question a minute means an amount of time, and is not related to the time of day.

27 A

The main idea of the statement is the location of a presentation that will take place. The time, when, is not given, so the second speaker asks for this information. (B) gives more information about where and (C) is a question about information that is already given in the question.

28 B

The first speaker is asking where an employee or colleague is working now. (A) Mustard sounds similar to moustache, but it is a type of sauce. (C) The verb represented is related to the noun representative, but it doesn't refer to a person.

29 C

This is a request for information about the location of the company's letterhead paper and the answer is “in the cabinet.” (A) A person in charge is the head (not letterhead) of a company (B) Letter sounds similar to letterhead but it is a written document, not a type of paper.

30 A

The first speaker gives a choice of a place and the decision is to go outside. (B) Take the table means to sit at a table, not to move it. (C) Teresa sounds similar to terrace but is the name of a person, not an outside area attached to a building.

31 A

By saying how far along the first speaker is asking how much more you need to do or how close you are to finishing the report. The second speaker's response gives that information. (B) Five miles is a physical distance. (C) Airport sounds similar to report.

32 C

The first speaker is checking that a flight has been confirmed and the second speaker offers to check this. (A) Firm sounds similar to confirm, but it is a noun that means “a company,” not a verb that means “to make certain.” (B) Sight, the noun form of the verb see, sounds similar to flight, the noun form of the verb fly.

33 B

The main idea of the question is what more is needed and the response gives that information. (A) is an answer to the question where. (B) is an answer to the question when.

34 A

The first speaker asks for a reason why and the second speaker gives the reason. (B) does not make sense since there are no cars in the parking lot. (C) A lot means “a large amount” in this context, not an area.

35 A

The question is a polite offer and the second speaker accepts the offer. (B) The answer to the question of Would you like...? would not be yes if the speaker is already waiting for a coffee. (C) Mr. Stephens is the person who is responding.

36 B

The statement is a polite way to get confirmation about an action and the response gives that confirmation. (A) and (C) contain different meanings of place from the way it is used in the question. Place can be used as a verb to mean “to put in a location” or as a noun meaning “location.”

37 B

The question is when something started in the past and the response gives that information. (A) is an answer to when something starts in the future. (C) indicates that something ended sometime in the past.

38 A

The first speaker is asking for confirmation and the second speaker confirms the statement and gives a reason. (B) Contract (with the stress on the first syllable) means a document of agreement and contract (with the stress on the second syllable) means to become infected with an illness. (C) In this response, hard is a physical description of the material concrete, but in the question, working hard means “putting in a lot of effort.”

39 C

The first speaker asks for the information of a location (where) and the second speaker gives the location. (A) is about a change of location. (B) is a negative response to a question about who is in the head office.

40 A

The question is a request and the request is agreed to. (B) is about another person (he) and not the speaker. (C) ‘Have a word with’ means “to speak to,” so have in the question isn’t referring to possession.

Part 3: Conversations

41 A

According to the speakers, Mr. Johnson has made the decision to resign from his job. (B) "I'm sorry to hear that" means the speaker is sad about the news, not that there is a hearing problem. (C) Mr. Johnson plans to resign (= to quit) from his job because of his health, not go to a resort (= a place where people can go on vacation for relaxation or for an activity) for his health. (D) The second speaker wonders who will be the new Sales Director, but this is not the main topic of the conversation.

42 C

One of the speakers asks who the new Sales Director will be. This shows that Mr. Johnson is leaving the position of Sales Director. (A) and (D) refer to positions that are in the field of health, but the conversation only mentions health as a reason Mr. Johnson is retiring. (B) Design sounds similar to resign, but means "to draw or plan something," not "to quit."

43 B

When someone retires because of health problems, it is assumed the person is going to stop working. Although the people wonder who will replace Mr. Johnson, it does not mean he is (A) moving to a new place or (C) transferring. (D) Mr. Johnson is leaving the job of Sales Director, not taking over the job.

44 D

The people are discussing business documents and the woman asks when the man will be back at the office. (A) The woman delivered the files, but this does not mean that she works in a post office. (B) The man has to leave the office to catch the train. (C) The woman left the files with Jim Zeng's personal assistant.

45 B

The woman says that she made the delivery 10 minutes ago and the man says that the time is 3 o'clock. (A) The delivery was made 10 minutes ago, not 10 days ago. (C) The conversation takes place in the afternoon, but there is no mention of the day of the week. (D) Early is used in the conversation to indicate when the man hopes to be back.

46 B

The man says that it is 3 o'clock. (A) The woman delivered the files 10 minutes ago, or at 2:50. (C) There is no mention of 3:10. (D) The train leaves at 3:20.

47 A

The woman is most likely checking members' cards at a club entrance. (B) The woman is using a computer, but there is no indication that they are in a computer store. (C) The woman may be at a check-out counter at the entrance of the club, but there is nothing in the conversation to show that. (D) The club could be in a hotel, but there is no mention of a hotel in the conversation.

48 B

The woman wants to see the man's membership card. (A) The man is already a member of the club. (C) The woman asks for the man's name, not its spelling. (D) Members are encouraged to carry their membership card.

49 A

The man thinks he has left his card at home, so he has probably forgotten to bring it. (B) A membership card is discussed, not membership fees. (C) and (D) The woman is checking the computer. There is no mention of a computer course or writing a check.

50 A

The first speaker states that the fence (= a structure of wood or wire forming a wall around a piece of land) has been damaged. (B) A storm damaged the fence. (C) and (D) The plans were to remove the fence for the building (= the construction) of an annex (= an extension).

51 D

The storm damaged the fence. (A) The conversation discusses a plan to start building in the future. (B) Vandals (= people who intentionally damage things in public places) are not mentioned. (C) There was a plan to replace the fence in the future.

52 C

According to the second speaker, the annex will be built next spring. (A) There is no mention of a wall. (B) The speaker says the fence was going to be replaced, not the annex. (D) The speakers do not say anything about repairing the fence.

53 C

The people have looked for an advertisement they placed in the newspaper, but it wasn't there. (A) They have seen the newspaper, but not the advertisement. (B) The fact that the advertisement was not in the newspaper was discouraging. (D) The woman looked for the advertisement in both issues and it wasn't in either.

54 B

The man mentions the different ways people will find out about the sale. (A) The woman will call the Daily News to find out the problem. (C) The man says that lots of people come to the mall on the weekend. (D) The sale has been broadcast on the radio, not on TV.

55 A

The people are talking about their sale taking place in the mall, so that is probably where the people are. (B) The advertisement will be on the radio. (C) The woman says she will call the newspaper office. (D) The post office is not mentioned.

56 A

The woman has a question about her paycheck (= money she earned), so she is an employee. (B) A customer might ask about a check, but not a paycheck. (C) The woman is told that she must see the accountant. (D) There is no mention of a waitress.

57 B

The woman says that she has a question about her paycheck. (A) She is told that she needs to talk to Evonne. (C) The woman has no problem with coming back. (D) Evonne has gone to lunch.

58 A

59 C

The woman is looking for a mouse pad and the man takes her to the section where the computer accessories can be found. (A) A person who needs to buy a new mouse pad would not go to an office to buy one. (B) The context of the conversation shows that the people are talking about a computer device and not an animal. (D) Although the woman has a health problem she is looking for a device that will be more comfortable to use.

60 A

The woman wants to buy a special kind of mouse pad that helps support her wrist. (B) and (C) are items the salesperson suggests that she might also want. (D) The woman says that she will buy a new computer workstation later.

61 D

The woman says that she is saving for a new computer workstation. She wants one with special features that will protect her muscles. (A) The woman is just buying one item now. (B) The woman is not asking for treatment for her pain, but a computer accessory to help prevent it. (C) The woman is getting a mouse pad that will support her wrist, not wrist supports.

62 C

The man says that he is driving to the conference. (A) A bus has been chartered, but he is not on the list to take it. (B) The woman asks if he is flying. (D) After the first day, the man will walk.

Part 3

Questions 41 through 43 refer to the following conversation.

- Woman: Mr. Johnson's resigning. Did you know that?
Man: No, I didn't. Did he get an offer from another company?
Woman: No, he's retiring because of health problems.
Man: I'm sorry to hear that. I wonder who'll be the new Sales Director.

Questions 44 through 46 refer to the following conversation.

- Man: Have you delivered those files to Jim Zeng?
Woman: Yes. Just ten minutes ago. I left them with his secretary since he was in a meeting.
Man: OK. Thanks. I have a train to catch so I better leave now.
Woman: When will you be back at the office?
Man: I should be back early next week. Monday I hope. Oh, I really have to run now. It's 3 o'clock and the train leaves at 3:20.

Questions 47 through 49 refer to the following conversation.

- Woman: Do you have your club membership card?
Man: My card? Oh no, not on me. It must be at home. Is it necessary?
Woman: Well, we do encourage members to carry it. Can you give me your name so I can check the records on the computer?
Man: Sure. It is Parke, spelled with an "e" at the end.

Questions 50 through 52 refer to the following conversation.

- Man 1: The outside fence has been damaged.
Man 2: I'm not surprised. That was a terrible storm last night. And the fence wasn't very strong, was it?
Man 1: No, we were already planning to replace it, actually.
Man 2: Is that part of the plan for when they start building the new annex next spring?

Questions 53 through 55 refer to the following conversation.

- Woman: Did you see our advertisement in Tuesday's paper?
Man: No, I looked for it, but didn't see it. I also looked in Wednesday's issue.
Woman: Well, that's discouraging. It doesn't seem to have been put in. I'll call the Daily News and see what the problem is. Our weekend sale won't get much attention if nobody knows that it's happening.
Man: I wouldn't worry too much about that. We have placed posters throughout the mall and the sale's been broadcast on the radio. Besides, lots of people come to the mall on the weekend anyway.

Questions 56 through 58 refer to the following conversation.

- Man: Can I help you?
Woman: Yes. I have a question about my paycheck.
Man: You'll want to see Evonne in accounting, but I'm afraid she's out to lunch right now. Can you come back after 1:00?
Woman: No problem.

Questions 59 through 61 refer to the following conversation.

- Man: May I help you?
Woman: Yes. I'm looking for a new mouse pad, one that will give more support to my wrist. It's causing me a lot of pain.
Man: OK. Our computer accessories are over here. We have several mouse pads, but you might also want to consider a different kind of mouse or keyboard as well.
Woman: Yes. I know that those may also be helpful, but I just want a mouse pad for now. I'm saving up for a specially designed computer and workstation that prevents people from getting muscle pains.

Questions 62 through 64 refer to the following conversation.

Woman: I noticed your name isn't on the list for the chartered bus. Are you flying to the conference?

Man: No, driving. My wife's mother lives near the convention center, so she's dropping me off on the first day and then taking the kids to see their grandma.

Woman: Oh, that's convenient.

Man: It is. In fact, my mother-in-law lives within walking distance from the convention center, so I didn't even need to book a hotel.

Questions 65 through 67 refer to the following conversation.

Woman: Has anyone seen the file folder I left on the table by the photocopy machine?

Man: Well, I did notice a book there.

Woman: No, not a book. I was bringing the folder to Jack's office and I stopped to make a copy of a contract.

Man: Oh. I do remember seeing Alice from accounting pick up a red folder. She must have thought it was hers.

Questions 68 through 70 refer to the following conversation.

Woman 1: Are you ready to go to lunch, Ritva?

Woman 2: Not quite. I'm just sending this fax. It's almost finished.

Woman 1: OK. I'm not in a hurry. I'll be in my office. Come and get me when you're ready to go.

Woman 2: Since you're not in a hurry, I'll just make a copy of this receipt, too.

Just go to the traffic cams link at the Clarksville City website. There you can see images supplied courtesy of the Clarksville Highway Traffic Control. Images are updated every 5 minutes. There may be times when cameras are not available. They may be offline for police inspection or routine maintenance. When the image on the traffic cams are 15 minutes out of date, the words "not available" flash across the screen.

Questions 86 through 88 refer to the following recording of a public service announcement on TV.

High fuel prices and low temperatures have made many families worried about their ability to pay their energy bills. If you live in a low income household, then we can help to reduce your energy bills this winter. If you fulfill the requirements, an energy check will be made on your home and you can be helped with energy bills, the repair of your furnace, and necessary insulation improvements. This city-funded program is free to applicants below a certain income level. Please call 555-9880 or visit our office on Main Street for advice on how to apply for home energy assistance.

Questions 89 through 91 refer to the following talk.

Good afternoon. I'm Steve Edwards, director of marketing for Pie in the Sky, one of the nation's most successful franchises in recent years. In the last two years we have opened 100 new bakeries in the western region alone. Now we are planning to expand nationwide. We aim to have a Pie in the Sky in over 100 shopping malls by the end of the decade giving shoppers everywhere the chance of tasting our delicious selection of home-baked pies. You're here today because you are interested in becoming a franchise owner of our rapidly-expanding business. We are all here today because we want to make money.

Questions 92 through 94 refer to the following speech.

Thank you for the introduction, Mr Chen I am delighted to be here with you this evening. I would like to make two points. One is to thank you for your support, for the commitment you continue to show in your work here at Haphazard Insurance Company. My other point is to praise you for being such a wonderful team at your company. I say “your company” because you have made it the successful company that it is. I must admit that as a founding member, I have called Haphazard Insurance my company over the years, but the accomplishments that I am so proud of come from you, from your energy and inspiration.

Questions 95 through 97 refer to the following talk.

Hi, welcome to the Green Dragon Restaurant. My name is Ken and I’ll be serving you this evening. Here is the menu. But first let me tell you about our specials for today. We have a barbecued beef and kimchi dish, which is a specialty of our head chef who has just returned from a six-month in-service training at a top restaurant in Korea. For our dessert special today we are serving baked apple tart: a favorite with our regular customers. I’ll leave you to look over the menu. Would you like to have a look at the drinks menu while you make your selections?

Questions 98 through 100 refer to the following radio news report.

Here is a news item with a happy ending. A Florida man reported a laptop computer, a GPS unit, and a digital camera stolen from his home — only to have most of the items left in front of his house a few days later, according to a police report. Jim Green reported the items stolen on November 3. Three days later, Green said he received a call from a stranger who told him he had the stolen items. The caller also said he had Green’s antique clock. Green didn’t realize the clock was also stolen but checked and found it was missing, too. Two hours later, the doorbell rang. In his driveway, Green found most of the items, except for the GPS unit. The police department is searching telephone records that could lead them to the caller.

Question 10: Propose a solution

Oh good afternoon. My name is Maria Lopez. I was in your store this morning and I think I may have left my glasses on the counter when I was buying some shoes. Or I may have put them down somewhere when I was trying on shoes. They are in a brown leather case. I was there at about 11 o'clock and I just got home and realized that I had forgotten them somewhere. I remember having them with me when I came into the store. Would you check if they are there or if someone in the store handed them in? Please call me at 555 9528.
